Building a Developmental Guidance and Counseling Program

November 12, 2009
8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.
Workshop #CS91112-K21

What is a developmental guidance and counseling program and what is the Texas Education Code (TEC) Sec. 33.005 position regarding one? This session will explain how to start, develop and/or expand a comprehensive guidance and counseling program involving school faculty and staff, students, parents, and the community.

Legal & Ethical Issues in Schools: Confidentiality, Records, and Documentation

December 14, 2009
9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Workshop #CC91214-K21

This workshop will provide school counselors with valuable information and tools to manage confidentiality in the school context. Counselors will learn to establish a "standard of care" through (1) knowledge of ethical standards and statutes, (2) use of an ethical decision-making model, and (3) application of standards to counseling records and documentation. Case scenarios will be used to provide opportunities for "hands on" learning.

Presenter(s): Gail K. Roaten, Ph.D., LPC
Assistant Professor of Counseling
